

URBAN THEATRE PROJECTS

ONE DAY FOR PEACE

A FILM ABOUT FAITH
AND THE EVERYDAY

+ SECONDARY SCHOOL
STUDY GUIDE

In one of the most multicultural cities in the world, One Day For Peace takes us on a journey across the suburbs of Western Sydney to ask 27 people from 10 different faiths: what do you believe?

THE STUDY GUIDE HAS BEEN WRITTEN BY ATOM FOR SECONDARY SCHOOL TEACHERS OF HUMAN SOCIETY AND ITS ENVIRONMENT, STUDIES OF RELIGION AND ENGAGES DIRECTLY WITH THE GENERAL CAPABILITIES OF THE NATIONAL CURRICULUM.

Arvinder finds internal peace through community work, Ciaron explains what drew him to Islam, Padam shows us the difference between modern and traditional turbans, while Mina and Gerry disagree about the role of the argument in their marriage.

Produced by Urban Theatre Projects, this multi-faith documentary combines everyday ritual with reflections on humanity, impermanence and social justice. One Day For Peace wrestles with some big (and not so big) questions inside homes, prayer houses and from the back seat of a taxi. One Day For Peace is a celebration of humanity.

KEY FEATURES:

DOCUMENTARY

- + Set in Western Sydney
- + Filmed in 2015
- + Considers 10 faiths
- + 37 minute running time
- + Available as hard copy DVD for $40 (excluding postage and handling)

Watch trailer: onedayforpeace.org.au

FREE STUDY GUIDE

- + Engages with 'Ethical', 'Intercultural' and 'Critical and Creative' Capabilities of the National Curriculum
- + Activities suggested for multiple year levels that relate to multiple humanities subjects
- + A focus on critical thinking and self-reflection to help students build relationships with others and the world around them
- + Questions developed for students to engage with the dominant themes that include prayer, spirituality, heritage etc.
- + 2 pages of extension activities

Download study guide:
onedayforpeace.org.au/schools

URBAN THEATRE PROJECTS (UTP) is an award-winning theatre company with over 35 years' experience of creating work from Sydney's west. UTP tells personal, real-life stories that represent a more complex portrait of contemporary Australia and is driven to make work that has the power to shift perceptions and break down stereotypes. By connecting people through great storytelling and rich shared experiences, UTP creates work that inspires us all to create a fairer and more compassionate society.

Contact UTP: 9707 2111 | onedayforpeace.org.au | #UTPOneDay

PACKER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Arts
NSW

Australia Council for the Arts

Sydney
Community
Foundation

